Dear Parents/Carers,

Book Week: Monday 4th March – 8th March

Once again, Book Week is approaching and our theme this year is 'Mr Men and Little Miss.' In each class, children will study elements of the theme and use this as a stimulus for drama, writing and creative activities. This is also strongly linked to our Mr Men and Little Miss Characteristic of Effective Learning.

On Monday, we will launch Book Week with an assembly when we will share snippets of stories from Mr Men and Little Miss series.

In addition, we have lots of other exciting events planned, including teacher story time. Tuesday will see the anticipated return of storytelling tents. Please can Pankhurst, Shakespeare and Churchill Class bring in cushions and blankets to make their tents for Darwin, Nightingale and Potters. All children can, of course, bring in their favourite teddy to enjoy the tents too.

Thursday is World Book Day and to celebrate it, we will also have a travelling book fair in school. All parents are welcome to come along to the book fair, on Wednesday 6th March and Thursday 7th March, after school in the hall. Children will be able to use their £1 book token, also included with this letter, as part payment against a book of their choice.

Every purchase made from the book fair will contribute towards commission for the school to buy new books for our library, so it really would be great if you could take part! Last year, we raised over £500...again!

We will end the week with a dress-up assembly. On Friday 8th March, pupils and staff will be encouraged to dress up as a character from a book of their choice or if they feeling adventurous a character from the Mr Men and Little Miss series. There will be book prize for a child in each class for creative dressing up.

We will celebrate the end of Book Week by opening our doors from 2:30pm - 3:00pm on Friday 8th March. This is to provide you with the opportunity to look at your child's Book Week work. P&F will be selling tea, coffee and cakes in the hall during the open afternoon.

We hope that the children will have a wonderful time and look forward to welcoming you at the Book Fair and our open afternoon too!

Yours sincerely,

Amanda Norman
Headteacher.
